

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 19, 2021

Warren A. Gingrich Insurance Agency Announces New Strategic Partnership

Altoona, PA - Warren A. Gingrich Insurance Agency has finalized a partnership with Michigan-based High Street Insurance Partners, a Top 50 US Insurance Brokerage. The Altoona-based agency, which was founded in 1954, will continue to be led by Gary Gingrich and Mark Gingrich. The group will continue to serve the insurance needs of families and businesses throughout Central and Western Pennsylvania.

"This is a very positive step for our clients and our firm," explains Gary Gingrich, Agency Principal. "With High Street, we're now part of a national network of best-in-class insurance partners. We can tap into innovative programs and services to address the broader needs of our clients. With this new partnership, we expand our resources, improve value to our clients, all while keeping our name and team intact. It's a real game changer for our community and clients."

About Warren A. Gingrich Agency

Founded in 1954, Warren A Gingrich Agency is a full-service insurance agency offering comprehensive lines of personal, commercial and life/health coverage. The firm also serves specialty industries and offers additional services, including bonds, annuities and funeral trust funds.

About High Street Insurance Partners

High Street Insurance Partners is a full-service independent insurance brokerage firm. Founded in 2018, the Traverse City, Michigan-based company provides a broad array of services delivered through community focused partner agencies. These services include: Business Insurance & Risk Management; Employee Benefits & Human Capital Management; Financial & Retirement Services; Personal Insurance; Specialty Risk Solutions

